Court Notices

State agencies must specify in each notice which proposes a rule the last date on which they will accept public comment. Agencies must always accept public comment: for a minimum of 45 days following publication in the Register of a Notice of Proposed Rule Making or a Notice of Emergency Adoption and Proposed Rule Making for which full text was included in the Notice or posted on a state web site, or which is a consensus rule or a rule defined in SAPA §102(2)(a)(ii); or for a minimum of 60 days following publication in the Register of a Notice of Proposed Rule Making or a Notice of Emergency Adoption and Proposed Rule Making for which a summary of the text of the rule was included in the Notice and the full text of which was not published on a state web site; and for 30 days after publication of a Notice of Revised Rule Making in the Register. When a public hearing is required by statute, the hearing cannot be held until 45 days after publication of the notice, and comments must be accepted for at least 5 days after the last required hearing. When the public comment period ends on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, agencies must accept comment through the close of business on the next succeeding workday.

For notices published in this issue:

- the 60-day period expires on Sunday, June 19, 2005
- the 45-day period expires on Saturday, June 4, 2005
- the 30-day period expires on Friday, May 20, 2005

Office of Children and Family Services Administrative Adjudication Report Division of Legal Affairs Bureau of Special Fair Hearings

Pursuant to Executive Order No.131 issued on December 4, 1989, each agency is required to publish a report that sets forth the steps taken by the agency to comply with the Order. The report of the former Department of Social Services, an Office of Children and Family Services' predecessor agency, detailed the initial steps taken to comply with the Order, including changes in organizational structure, office regulations and practices and in hearing procedures. Those provisions substantially continue to be in effect and applicable to the Office of Children and Family Services.

The Order requires that the report include "statistics on Article 78 proceedings brought against the agency, including the outcome of such proceedings and the reasons for any reversal or modification of an agency determination." The following statistics on Article 78 proceedings are from the period commencing January 1, 2003 to December 31, 2004:

Cases Opened: 65
Cases Closed: 22
Stipulation of Settlement: 11
Decisions Favorable to the office: 7
Withdrawn or abandoned by petitioner: 3

Decisions adverse to the office: 1
Reasons –
